(INSTRUCTION SHEET) DISCOVER PLAY AGAIN

Our story starts here. Technology promises quick solutions, tailored to our context. Yet, it prevents our senses from experiencing our world in its true form.

And so, what we are told is technological efficiency is distraction.

---

OUR MISSION

1. Make it possible for people to play again
  2. Help people to break the spell of technology and ultimately reconnect to their inner child
  3. Empower people to develop alternative narratives of tech
  4. Facilitate opening to an existent, positive state of mind

IMPORTANT BEFORE USE

Our products develop positivity, safe risk taking, trust, creativity and spontaneity.

bdistracted design of products is based on the restoration of imagination. We are not responsible for the further development of clients' imagination during or after use.
